Uttarakhand govt clears UCC rules

- Set to be rolled out after local body elections

AISWARYA RAJ
Dehradun, January 20

Pushkar Singh Dhami, chief minister of Uttarakhand

TATKAL REGISTRATION, DOOR-to-door services in remote areas, and state-wide mock drill on January 21 — these are some of the key provisions in Uttarakhand's Uniform Civil Code (UCC) manual of rules, which the state's Pushkar Singh Dhami cabinet approved on Monday. According to sources, the rules manual, which was approved by the Cabinet meeting convened for the purpose on Monday, is expected to be announced after the local body elections on Thursday since the Model Code of Conduct is currently in force. The training of the officials is also in the final stages. Once these are rolled out, Uttarakhand will become the first state to implement the UCC.

Leaving the State Secretariat after the Cabinet meeting, chief minister Pushkar Singh Dhami said: "We had announced in 2022 that our first work will be UCC after the government is formed. The committee framed the draft and it was passed with the President's assent. The training is in the final stages and we will soon announce the dates for the implementation... We have discussed the rules today".

RG Kar case 'not rarest of rare'; life term for convict

TANUSREE BOSE
Kolkata, January 20

A COURT IN Kolkata's Sealdah Monday sentenced Sanjoy Roy to life imprisonment "until his last breath" for the rape and murder of a junior doctor at the state-run RG Kar College and Hospital. Roy, a 35-year-old civic volunteer with the Kolkata Police, was convicted under Sections 64 (punishment for rape), 66 (punishment for causing death or a persistent vegetative state to a woman) and 101 (1) (murder) in a ruling that came five months after the August 9 incident sparked outrage and triggered protests of doctors in West Bengal.

The court has ordered the state government to give ₹17 lakh as compensation to the victim's family

While reading out its ruling, the court said it wasn't "rarest of rare case". "...so, for the rape (Section 64) you (Roy) are given life imprisonment with ₹50,000 fine. If the fine isn't paid, an extra five months have to be served. For Section 103(1) (murder) and for Section 66 (punishment for causing death or a persistent vegetative state to a woman), you are given a whole life (left term). Till your last breath, you will remain in jail," Judge Anirban Das said, also ordering the state government to give ₹17 lakh as compensation to the victim's family. The sentence, given by additional sessions judge Anirban Das in a full court, came following 66 days of in-camera trial and examination of 120 witnesses. Asked if he had anything to say, Roy claimed he had been "framed".

Police found 19 fingerprints at Saif's house, to match with accused

VIJAY KUMAR YADAV
Mumbai, January 20

Mohammed Shariful Islam

FOLLOWING THE ATTACK on actor Saif Ali Khan, the Mumbai Police found 19 fingerprints at his house that are suspected to be of the attacker, said sources. These will now be matched with the fingerprints of the Bangladeshi national, Mohammed Shariful Islam alias Vijay Das, who has been arrested in the case. Sources in the Mumbai Police said they lifted fingerprints from the bathroom window from where the attacker is suspected to have entered and escaped, the duct shaft, and the ladder he used, among other places. They ran these fingerprints through the state and national databases, but they did not find any matches.

"We should have realised that the robber could be from outside and probably a Bangladeshi national, as many people enter the country illegally from there," said a police officer who is part of the probe. Following the arrest of Shariful Islam (30) on Sunday, the police now have his fingerprints. The fingerprints, if they match, will be the strongest evidence to secure a conviction, said officials.

Meanwhile, the accused, who was sent to police custody for five days on Sunday, was brought to the Bandra police station on Monday. He is likely to be taken to the actor's house in Bandra West to recreate the crime scene, including how he entered the building and fled. Khan was seriously injured in the break-in at his duplex residence on January 16.
